Marital and Family

The firm's Marital and Family Law Group focuses on providing clients with quality representation in areas of personal importance to them. This representation starts with helping our clients plan for marriage and the drafting of prenuptial and postnuptial agreements.

Our services in the area of dissolution of marriage encompass all litigation aspects of divorce. This includes representation in the mediation process and the litigation of issues that must be resolved by a court. Because of our extensive resources, the firm is well equipped to advise our clients on all tax aspects arising from dissolution of marriage and division of assets, and to review and advise clients regarding business issues that may arise. Our litigation experience includes the valuation and division of business interests in connection with the dissolution process.

In addition, we have extensive experience in dealing with issues that arise after a marriage has been dissolved. Our experience in these modification proceedings includes everything from alimony and child support adjustments to visitation and custody issues. The firm also represents clients in adoption proceedings and child custody disputes. Our Appellate Group also handles marital and family law appeals.

Practice Areas Include

- Child Custody
- Divorce and Dissolution of Marriage
- Modification Proceedings
- Prenuptial and Postnuptial Agreements

Please click here to view news and publications related to our Marital and Family Law Group.