Overview

Alexa Kays is an associate in the firm's Litigation & Dispute Resolution Practice Group. She earned her bachelor's degree from the University of Alabama and her J.D. from Florida State University College of Law. Alexa returned to Trenam after serving as a summer associate with the firm in 2025.

During law school, Alexa was a Florida Gubernatorial Fellow with the Florida Department of State's Office of General Counsel, where she worked on legal and policy matters involving state government. As part of the fellowship, she traveled to Washington, D.C., with Secretary of State Cord Byrd to assist with congressional hearings and participated in discussions with federal and state government leaders. Alexa also served on the Florida State University Law Review, competed in the Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition, and served as an ambassador to the College of Law.

Prior to law school, Alexa was a judicial intern with the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Alabama under the Honorable Scott Coogler.
