Overview

Alexandra Ally Glauser is Senior Counsel in the firm's Real Estate and Lending Transactions Practice Group. She represents individuals, businesses, and financial institutions in a wide range of residential and commercial real estate matters, including purchases and sales, leasing, financing, 1031 exchanges, and development transactions. Ally's clients range from first-time homebuyers and individuals building custom homes to businesses negotiating commercial space leases and developers managing projects throughout Florida.

A Sarasota native and graduate of Pine View School, Ally earned her bachelor's degree in Finance and Marketing, magna cum laude, from Florida State University. She received her Juris Doctor from Florida State University College of Law, where she earned the Business Law Certificate with High Honors. During law school, Ally studied international law at the University of Oxford and received Book Awards in Florida Civil Practice, International Trade and Investment Law, International and Foreign Legal Research, and Professional Responsibility.

At Florida State University College of Law, Ally served as Writing and Research Editor for the Journal of Transactional Law & Policy and held leadership and membership roles in several student organizations, including the Entertainment, Arts and Sports Law Society, the Business Law Society, the Federalist Society, and the International Law Students Association. Prior to joining Trenam, she clerked for the Florida Department of Economic Opportunity's Office of the General Counsel in Tallahassee.

Outside of her practice, Ally remains deeply connected to the Sarasota community and enjoys traveling and spending time with her husband, daughters, and extended family. Ally strives to put God first in all that she says and does and is truly honored to serve her clients.
