Overview

Graham Carothers is a shareholder and co-leader in the Real Estate and Lending Transactions Practice Group. He focuses his practice on representing individuals and business entities on a national level in a variety of commercial real estate transactions, including the purchase and sale of data centers, hospital and medical office buildings, retail shopping centers, retail bank branches, hotels, and agricultural lands. Graham also regularly represents landlords and tenants in commercial leasing matters, property owners in complex title insurance matters, developers in condominium developments and conversions, and institutional lenders in real-estate-based loan transactions. Graham also has experience representing developers in the acquisition, subdivision and development of commercial, residential and mixed-use projects.
