Overview

Gary Denbigh is an attorney in the firm's Litigation & Dispute Resolution Practice Group, where he focuses on business and commercial disputes.

Before joining Trenam, Gary served as a Certified Legal Intern with the Office of the State Attorney for the 13th Judicial Circuit, where he represented the State of Florida in criminal prosecution matters and collaborated with assistant state attorneys on case strategy, motions, and plea agreements. He also served as a judicial intern for the Honorable Anthony Porcelli of the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida and as a summer associate and law clerk at a Tampa law firm, where he supported insurance defense litigation through legal research, motion practice, depositions, and hearings.

Prior to his legal career, Gary served in various roles with the Hillsborough County Sheriff's Office, including lieutenant, detective, and member and leader of the Special Weapons and Tactics Team. He currently serves as a Reserve Deputy. Gary also brings business and operations experience from his time as a branch manager of a construction company, where he managed personnel and operations, negotiated contracts, and oversaw OSHA and Department of Transportation compliance. He is also OSHA 30-Hour Construction trained.

Gary's background in litigation, law enforcement, business operations, and regulatory compliance enables him to provide clients with practical, strategic counsel in navigating complex legal disputes.
