Overview

Catherine "Cat" DiPaolo is a Shareholder in the Litigation and Dispute Resolution Group and she is Florida Bar Board Certified in Business Litigation. Her practice includes construction, business, and employment disputes in state and federal courts throughout Florida. An experienced trial attorney, Cat has handled cases for a wide variety of clients in diverse areas including complex business and construction defect litigation, lien and bond disputes, homeowner property matters, shareholder derivative suits, franchising/distributorships, healthcare and medical staff privileges litigation, proceedings supplementary, and non-compete and restrictive covenants, as well as all manner of employment-related matters.

Cat represents owners, homeowners' associations, developers, contractors, subcontractors, design professionals, manufacturers and suppliers in all phases of dispute resolution and litigation, as well as serving as a counselor and advisor to business owners and executives, helping them navigate and resolve complex legal matters and disputes.

Representative Matters

Construction

- Represent a leading national manufacturer and modular homebuilder in construction dispute claims, involving single-family homeowners and multi-resident medical and housing developments, in both state and federal courts.
- Represent a contractor specializing in remediation and restorations with the foreclosure of a construction lien on a high-rise luxury condominium development in the Florida panhandle area.
- Represent a national financial management factor in lien foreclosure and breach of contract claims for non-payment to subcontractors.
- Assist a contractor client who fabricates specialized and miscellaneous metals and light structural steel products with the filing and successful prosecution of liens and public construction bonds, recovering in excess of $1 million on various projects.
- Represent clients who provide construction services to private companies, non-for-profits, local municipalities, and Federal Government facilities in lawsuits against sub-contractors.

Business Litigation

- Successfully defended a group of 16 chiropractors, entities, and medical doctor clients who were sued by State Farm for fraud, civil conspiracy, unjust enrichment, FDUPTA and declaratory judgment, alleging medically unnecessary treatment of over 1,000 patients over 6 years. The jury returned a 100% defense verdict after a 3 week trial.
- Successfully represented managing member of an LLC in connection with misappropriation and theft of intellectual property in excess of nearly $10M belonging to the business. The lawsuit was resolved on favorable terms.
- Represented multi-line insurance agency in co-brokerage commission dispute, securing favorable trial result on behalf of client.
- Successfully defended state university against defamation
