decided - as a matter of first impression - the meaning of provided for in 11 U.S.C. 1328(a). The Eleventh Circuit held that a Chapter 13 plan that states mortgage payments would continue to be made directly to the creditor outside of the plan does not provide for the mortgage debt and therefore that debt is not discharged by the successful completion of the plan.
- Secured affirmances of (a) settlement agreement reached by chapter 7 trustee with primary creditor over debtor's objection and (b) denial of debtor's motion to convert chapter 7 case to one under chapter 11. Daughtrey v. Rivera (In re Daughtrey), 2015 WL 5604764 (M.D. Fla. 2015); Daughtrey v. Rivera (In re Daughtrey), 896 F. 3d 1255 (11th Cir. 2018). In affirming, the Eleventh Circuit determined, as a matter of apparent first impression in the circuit, the abuse of discretion standard of review applies to a bankruptcy court's denial of a motion to convert a Chapter 7 case to one under chapter 11.
- Secured reversal of order dismissing appeal from bankruptcy court for lack of subject matter jurisdiction because order granting motion to approve compromise of controversy resolving a fraudulent transfer adversary proceeding is a final order even though the issue of attorney's fees for discovery sanctions remained outstanding. Daake v. C.D. Jones & Co. (In re C.D. Jones & Co.), 658 Fed. Appx. 1000 (11th Cir. 2016)
- Secured reversal of order denying equitable lien claim because fraud exception to Florida's homestead exemption applied. LaMarca v. Jansen (In re Bifani), 580 F. Appx. 740 (11th Cir. 2014)
- Secured affirmance of judgment holding 11 U.S.C. 506(a) does not provide for automatic bifurcation of secured claims and IRS did not have a general unsecured claim or priority unsecured claim because it failed to bifurcate its secured claim or reserve its right to do so. United States v. Oscher (In re J.H. Inv. Servs.), 452 Fed. Appx. 858 (11th Cir. 2011).
