Overview

Stan Eleff joined the firm in 1978 and is a Senior Member. He previously served as the firm's General Counsel and as Chairman of the firm's Litigation and Dispute Resolution Group. His practice includes noncompete and restrictive covenants, franchising advice and litigation, construction disputes, unfair competition, franchising/distributorships/business opportunities, intellectual property advice and litigation, and arbitration and alternate dispute resolution.

Representative Matters

Stan has handled hundreds of matters involving breach of contract claims, including the enforcement and defense of non-compete covenants, disputes among closely held corporations, and multi-million-dollar commercial claims. He has also advised clients on franchising opportunities as both franchisors and franchisees, drafted and revised franchise documents, and litigated franchisor-franchisee disputes.
